

California Western Community Law Project - Clinic Dates - Fall 2025

Prior to attending a CLP clinic, please check the CLP website at www.cwclp.org for updates, schedule changes and closures.

My boss is refusing to pay me for some of the work I have done. What can I do?

My former landlord has not returned my security deposit. What are my rights?

My family received an eviction notice. Do we need to leave our home?

How can I protect myself from consumer scams?

I have questions about the immigration process.

How can I:
Get a restraining order?
File for divorce or custody of my child?

CLP CLINICS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. THERE IS ALWAYS A SPANISH LANGUAGE INTERPRETER ON SITE TO ASSIST WITH INTERPRETATION.

- Ⓢ Services are provided on a first come, first served basis.
- Ⓢ Those seeking assistance should arrive to the clinic site early as capacity may be limited.
- Ⓢ Attendees may be screened for flu/COVID symptoms and are discouraged from attending if they feel ill.

We provide free and confidential legal information, advice and referrals. We are not able to provide representation.
